Neha Gupta

MD

Dr. Neha Gupta is an American Board of Ophthalmology–certified ophthalmologist specializing in the medical and surgical treatment of diseases of the retina and vitreous. She provides comprehensive care for a wide range of retinal conditions, including diabetic eye disease, macular disorders, retinal detachments, and ocular infections.

Born and raised in the suburbs of Detroit, Michigan, Dr. Gupta developed an early interest in medicine by observing her parents, both physicians, and their passion for patient care and the medical profession. She carried that passion forward while earning her Bachelor of Science in Health Sciences, with minors in Biology and Health Care Ethics, from Saint Louis University. Following graduation, she completed a dedicated year of ophthalmic research at Kresge Eye Institute in Detroit.

Dr. Gupta earned her medical degree from Wayne State University School of Medicine and completed a Transitional Year internship at Beaumont Health in Dearborn, Michigan. She then completed her ophthalmology residency at SUNY Upstate Medical University, where she served as Chief Resident. Dr. Gupta subsequently completed fellowship training in vitreoretinal surgery at New York Eye and Ear Infirmary of Mount Sinai, one of the nation's leading ophthalmology training institutions.

Throughout her training, Dr. Gupta distinguished herself through leadership, education, and scholarly achievement. She was inducted into the Alpha Omega Alpha Honor Medical Society. Dr. Gupta has received numerous honors recognizing her excellence in patient care and research, as well as her dedication to resident education during fellowship.

Outside of medicine, she enjoys traveling and exploring new culinary experiences. She values spending quality time with family and friends throughout the Chicago area.

Dr. Neha Gupta joined Illinois Retina in October 2026 and is seeing patients in Libertyville, Skokie and Glenview offices.
